OUTWOOD VILLAGE SHOW 2019

Saturday 31st August

We are pleased to announce the 2019 Outwood Village Show will be going ahead this year!

Many stalls, games and events are planned for the day

BBQ
Coconut Shy
Cakes

Woodcarving
Welly Wanging
Raffle

Cider Making
Ceramics
Craft Stalls

Plus tables from The Parish Council, National Trust & many more...

For these to be able to run however we need a good number of volunteers to lend a hand setting up and for the running of the stalls. Without help it will be difficult for the current team to man all the stalls on the day.

It promises to be a great day for all the family - a true village show with community spirit!

If you are able to help out on the day or would like a table on the day get in touch!

CHURCH NEWS

Rector's Ramblings

Did you watch any of the commemorations of the 75th anniversary of D-Day last month? I was struck by the letter to his wife from a soldier killed on June 8th 1944 that Theresa May read out. And the French young man's letter to his parents just before he was shot that Emmanuel Macron read out. Justin Trudeau, the Canadian Prime Minister, read a citation and Donald Trump read out Franklin D Roosevelt's prayer.

Angela Merkel, the German Chancellor, was there but she didn't read anything out. To me that was a shame. Germans were involved in D-Day too. Germans were killed on D-Day too.

Is it still something to do with them and us I wonder? The sense of co-operation between nations was celebrated, the allied nations, us. But not them, and the them at that time were the Germans.

I feel I've heard them and us language more often since the Brexit referendum, the third anniversary of which was also last month.

The Sunday following the D-Day commemorations was Pentecost Sunday, when in the church we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit on the disciples as recorded in the New Testament. Around the disciples were Jews from many nations and they all heard their own language spoken by these simple Galilean fishermen talking. The Bible has a story about people being divided by language, the Tower of Babel. Pentecost is a story of people of different languages being reunited.

The Sunday following Pentecost Sunday, June 16th, happened to be another third anniversary – three years since the murder of the MP for Batley and Spen, Jo Cox, who famously said in her maiden speech in parliament: We are far more united and have far more in common than that which divides us. During the D-Day commemorations Channel Four News showed an item about two veterans meeting which to me vividly portrayed just what she was talking about.

It began with a view of the beaches and the presenter saying:

This is the tale of two soldiers who have never met and were supposed to kill each other 75 years ago on this beach. One fighting for the Führer and the Fatherland, Paul Golz, aged 18 on D-Day, the other fighting for King and Country, Harry Reid, barely a year older. You might know him by now - 95 years old, age didn't prevent him from jumping out of a plane yesterday as he did 75 years ago in the first hours of the invasion. He's spent most of his life working for the Salvation Army, forgiveness was virtually written into his contract but yet when we spoke to him recently about meeting Paul the German soldier, he was cautious.

CHURCH NEWS

The scene shifted to Harry Reid who said:

I'm not sure what I'm going to say to him. I'm going to have to think about it. But I do know this. I will accept him. I will accept him.

And then we saw the two of them meeting on June 6th in a café in Normandy. Harry's first words were:

I'm so glad to see you and to hold your hand and to say bless you. We are partners. Once we were on a different side but we are partners together in the rebuilding of the world.

And at the end as they parted Paul Golz said: Now we are friends.

To which Harry Reid replied: We are more than that we are brothers

I've heard a lot recently about that which divides us. I found it refreshing to hear something about what unites us.

With love and prayers

Nicholas

AUCTION OF PROMISES

Saturday 23rd November 2019

Lloyd Hall

Raising money to improve the parking at The Lloyd Hall

Many villagers and other hall users will know that on the days of a larger event taking place at the Hall there is parking down one side of Brickfield Road and this is a potential hazard to both those using Brickfield Road and those parking on it.

The Parish Council has obtained planning permission to improve the verge on that side of the road which would mean less mud for those parking, and cars a bit further off the main carriageway for those passing by.

Together we need to raise about £10,000 to cover the likely cost of these works to Highway Authority standards.

In autumn 2015 and spring/summer 2016 there was lots of fun and laughter in the village.

Extraordinary events were taking place, giving lots of pleasure.

A Paella Party at Cogmans Farm, an afternoon of Boules with BBQ at Old Millers Farm, Afternoon Tea in a treehouse, a Poolside supper, a Snooker tournament and supper at Burstow Park Farm, a Swim in a fresh water swimming pool and afternoon tea and many more including a Pooch Picnic for the local dogs and their owners. Meanwhile other villagers were relaxing while others were doing their ironing, making their Christmas cake, chopping their firewood, maintaining their garden etc. All because they had bid for one of the 80 items in the Auction of Promises. Through the generosity of everyone involved we raised a substantial amount to complete the new Lloyd Hall.

We now need a further large sum of money to improve the parking at the hall and we are holding another Auction of Promises, another chance to enjoy ourselves.

Please join the fun and get involved.

JUNE MEETING

It was another lively and very well attended meeting this month as our ladies arrived clutching bags and boxes, all containing family treasures. We had invited antiques expert, Michael Laikin, to join us for the “Outwood Antiques Road Show” and our numbers were swelled by visitors from the village as well as from other local WIs. As the incredible variety of precious heirlooms was unloaded onto a table, we waited in anticipation to hear what Michael would have to say about their place in history – as well as their value in today’s market!

Michael has a lifetime’s experience (66 years in the business) valuing antiques. He has had some exciting finds during his career, the most unusual being a collection of barbed wire with 973 different varieties, and the most expensive a Chinese vase that was eventually sold for its owner at £53 million! None of the items we brought proved to be quite so valuable, but he fascinated us with revelations about all the objects from pottery, glass and silver to strange decorative pieces with questionable functions. As he handled each piece, Michael was keen to ask the owner how it had come into their lives, which led to some fascinating family stories from our members. We all got to hold a genuine Olympic torch from 1948 which had been the proud possession of the father of our member, Norah Wretham.

NATURE WATCH

Following last month's report of two badger sightings in Bellwether Lane, I noticed a hole had been dug in the base of a long dead oak stump in the hedge, which looked to be typically the work of a badger. Badgers are omnivorous and regularly feed on ground beetles, earthworms and grubs of which there were plenty in the rotting wood and humus laden soil at the base of the tree. A few days later Pat Hewitt reported that chickens had been killed in a nearby garden leaving just the feathers and that the owners checked their security camera the following night and saw the badger on a return visit. Talking of visits we had an uninvited garden guest, one of the many roe deer that are to be seen locally. Foot marks were visible in soft soil together with the tell-tale browsing habit, a bit here and a bit there, so similar to goats, with the tops taken out of pot chrysanthemums and chicory with some young plants simply pulled out of the ground. Have improved the fencing.

From early June the weather took a turn for the worse with lowering grey skies, gusting wind, below normal temperatures for the time of year and day after day of rain, sometimes all day and occasionally heavy showers interspersed with a glimpse of sunshine. Forecasters are suggesting that this June will be a record for total rainfall and lowest average temperature. These cold, wet and windy conditions are certainly to blame for the lack of butterfly and damsel fly sightings, although, when the sun emerged, it didn't take long for them to show up on ponds in protected spots like the one by the car park at Bransland Wood. Also, mallard ducks have not been deterred from their annual mating rituals, with two or three males and one female bird lining the ridge of our neighbours house with constant quacking and the males jostling for prime position before flying off to consummate their passions on a nearby pond.

A couple of years ago I bought some seed of Corn-cockle (Agrostemma githago) and broadcast it in the gravel bed in the front garden. Over time it has self-sown abundantly and this year the dark pink flowers have been glorious. The corn-cockle is a wild flower that originates from the Mediterranean and, as a result of its preference for growing in corn fields the seed contaminated European cereals, so now it can be found in many temperate countries across the world.

Up until the mid 19th century the flower was very common and farmers treated the plant as a serious weed of wheat fields mainly because the seed gave bread a bitter taste.

The plant grows to one metre, is covered with fine hairs and has few branches, which are tipped with 25-50mm, dark pink, almost purple flowers that have dark coloured radial lines acting as a guide for pollinators; there are five lobed petals, five pointed sepals which project beyond the petals and ten stamens.

The flower has had many local names such as "Cat's ears" in Dorset; "Crown of the fields" in Somerset and "Puck needles" in Sussex named after the long stamens which project from the calyx tube.

OUTWOOD PARISH COUNCIL

JUNE MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Tandridge District Councillor Kevin Bourne updated us on the progress of the church yard extension, which is a moving forward but it will be some time before the process is completed.

National Trust are carrying out surveys of dragonflies & butterflies and also veteran trees. They will have a stand at village show.

Planning – Sawmills - Councillor Bourne advised us that Tone have submitted 3 appeals,
1 regarding the drive which was out of time and will go no further
2 The Timber Store they have made written representation,
3 The whole site – they have applied for a full enquiry. No date has been set yet.

Tandridge have issued five Enforcement notices and as of this moment none have been appealed against yet.

The new Sawmills Planning Application (Application 2019/868 Sawmills): there is not a lot to report on this yet except that this application, for whole site, took 1 month to validate, so there was some delay in publishing it. There is a new planning officer, dealing with this now, who has not had time to read it yet. The new officer is due to visit the site on the 12th of June.

There followed a considerable discussion by the OPC, the Tandridge Councillors and members of the community about this matter. It was felt there was too much information for us to digest before we run out of time to comment. Councillor Bourne was asked to request an extension so we can go through all the documents and perhaps discuss it again at the July meeting of the OPC.

Wells Field grass cutting will be shared by David Crittall and Grant McDonald.

Neighbourhood Watch and Speedwatch – see elsewhere in this edition

Highways – we await the resolution of the drainage problem on Outwood Lane.

Lloyd Hall – Significant payments were made in April and May balanced by income of £4370 in May for two weddings. Net operating income for 5 months (£2740) down from 2018. The excellent Tommy Blaize event made £1059 profit. A new exercise class is starting Tuesdays. Surrey County Councillor Rose Thorne has allocated £1k for the car parking. For more details about the LHMC meeting please visit the website.

Aviation & Transport – Ian Frow briefed us on the Gatwick Route 4 Redesign Stakeholder Review and he will respond on our behalf.

Community Matters – St Johns applied for and received funding from Gatwick Airport Community Trust to repoint areas of the Church Room brickwork.

If you haven't been able to attend a meeting but want to talk to us please come see us at the Outwood Show.

Date of the next meeting – Tuesday 9th July 2019 8pm in the Church Room

For more detailed meeting reports and any current planning applications please visit the website at www.outwood.org and click on Parish Council.

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU!!

On behalf of the Lloyd Hall Management Committee, I would like to thank all the volunteers who donated money, ingredients, flapjacks and valuable time toward the Bike Race Bake Sale. A great time was had both on "Bulk Bake Wednesday" at the Lloyd Hall and on Sunday during the sale itself (despite the weather!). Special appreciation goes to

The Dog and Duck and Outwood Butchers for their continued support.

Through everyone's efforts, we sold over 1,000 portions and raised an amazing £922.51 for the Lloyd Hall

ARTISANS OF OUTWOOD

Calling all artists, crafters and hobbyists!

There will be a stall showcasing the artistic and creative talents of Outwood residents at this year's Outwood Show on

Saturday 31st August

The purpose of the stall is to display the various talents of our neighbours and to introduce people to new hobbies and interests

If you are crafty, artistic or just have an interesting hobby, please consider contributing something to display on the stall or giving a short presentation about your hobby/interest/art/craft

There will be an opportunity to sell your items (for a small donation to the Show), but the main objective is to give people an opportunity to learn about or even try new things.

If you are interested in participating, please contact
Michelann Pollard ukmikie@hotmail.co.uk

OUTWOOD CRICKET CLUB

www.outwoodcricket.club

The club is now thrumming with activity with senior and academy sections fully engaged with their respective programmes.

Midway through June both our senior teams lead their respective divisions and both are undefeated. Early days, but promise, like the first zephyr of spring, is in the air.

In the Surrey Slam, although our Outlaws lost to a Maverick side stuffed with talent and cricketers out of the top drawer, we ran than them closer that we had a right to. We remain confident we will progress to the knockout stages of the Surrey Slam

The Outwood Renegades renew their campaign in the development league in mid-June. Unbeaten, the tough end of the season beckons, but we remain confident we can give a good account of ourselves and push for league honours.

Our women's team, The Blazes, fresh from their successful overseas tour to La Manga have played two games in their Slam League. Tough opposition means wins are hard to come by, but we have played the league front runners and confident of picking up points here on in.

The Outwood U10s and U11s are having a very good season so far. The U10s are joint top of their league, unbeaten and the U11s won through to the next round of their cup beating Crawley Down.

The Sunday XI and the Millermen do what they do...the Sunday XI mostly winning and the Millermen mostly not, although the Millers did get their first win in two season against our new best friends Mickleham.

So – come on down to the 'Wood – lots to see and lots to do and a nice a bunch of people you could hope to meet.

Keep in touch with all the action at the club through the website www.outwoodcricket.club.

Paracise™ classes coming to Outwood Village Hall in September on Tuesday mornings

For details contact Eileen on eileenmfraser@hotmail.com or 07702109791

Classes are already running on Mondays 4.30pm and Wednesdays
11.30am at Salfords Village Hall, Honeycrock Lane.

Come along and give it a go.

What is Paracise™ and why is it different?

Paracise™ is a brand new exercise class that is designed to be gentle on the joints but still effective at improving fitness. Flowing smoothly through movements designed to improve posture, balance, mobility and flexibility, whilst improving your muscle memory.

The classes are 45 minutes of standing exercise (no floor work) with fabulous music and delivers a “feel good factor”. You don’t need any equipment, just the desire to improve fitness and feel better. Classes are suitable for everyone

WARNING - FRAUDSTERS

Very convincing bogus policemen (name and number given) phoned an Outwood resident (elderly) claiming to have intercepted an attempt to withdraw money from her bank account via her visa debit card.

They were very convincing, caring, charming and anxious to help and proceeded to ask relevant questions and were brilliant "actors".

The resident's home address was known to them, but when amongst numerous other questions they wanted to know about the amount in the current bank account suspicions were aroused and daughter and son (against the wishes of the "policemen") were contacted.

They acted immediately and found out that the real police had no knowledge of the phoney ones and the bank knew nothing of the supposed fraud.

Contact was terminated immediately.

ADVICE IS TO BE VIGILANT.

National Trust

You may notice if you wander into Hornecourt Wood, that there's recently been a new wooden bridge constructed over the stream at southern end of the wood.

The (slightly improvised) official opening of the new bridge in Hornecourt Wood!

The Outwood Volunteers have been hard at work constructing this new bridge just below the original bridge, using the previously felled oak from Outwood Common.

It was carefully planned and constructed so that visitors to Hornecourt Wood can benefit from the improved (less wobbly) crossing over the stream, particularly during the wetter months. Including, hopefully a bit less of a muddy experience, for those walking their dogs, with the wider bridge, being able to .

We're planning on also widening another bridge nearby for the same reason, as well as carrying out more step repairs.

If you happen to notice any other repairs that need doing when you're out and about, then do let us know.
