CHARLES' CHATTERINGS

November is the month of Remembrance, and we shall hear echoed on Remembrance Sunday the words:

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.
We will remember them.

But how in our modern era do we remember those who have given their lives in the First and Second World Wars when our memories don't stretch that far back. How do we instil in the young people of today the importance that those events of 1914 - 1918 and 1939 - 1945 had in securing peace in our country.

We can often find ourselves with selective memory, which helps us to focus on our accomplishments; giving us the morale boost we would need should we be confronted by similar situations in the future. Selective memory can be helpful as we make our way through life; but it can also be a trap that prevents us from seeing clearly the reality of what we have been through, hampering our sense of gratitude towards those who have helped us along the way. And this is never more critical than when selective memory affects an entire nation; it is never more dangerous than when selective memory becomes selective remembrance.

Remembrance informs our gratitude. The way in which we remember informs the way in which we give thanks to others, and indeed to God, according to justice for what they have done for us. Our Remembrance needs to reflect on all those who have given their lives in service to their country down the ages, not just the First and Second World Wars but also our much more recent conflicts where lives have been lost.

The world could be a very different place if VE Day (8th May 1945: when Germany unconditionally surrendered) had never dawned, and the oppression of totalitarianism, racial hate, and fascism would have held sway across an entire continent...

Remembrance Day holds a very significant place in the lives of those who serve in our Armed Forces. When I was a chaplain with the Royal Air Force, Remembrance Sunday was the day when our troops would be out on show to the general public, best uniforms, shoes you could see your reflection in, marching through the streets, attending services and standing to attention at the War Memorials. But Remembrance Day (11th November) itself was always marked as a day for our service personnel to reflect on those that they knew who had made the ultimate sacrifice, away from the public, just us ... remembering.

Remembrance Day holds a very significant place in the lives of those who serve in our Armed Forces. When I was a chaplain with the Royal Air Force, Remembrance Sunday was the day when our troops would be out on show to the general public, best uniforms, shoes you could see your reflection in, marching through the streets, attending services and standing to attention at the War Memorials. But Remembrance Day (11th November) itself was always marked as a day for our service personnel to reflect on those that they knew who had made the ultimate sacrifice, away from the public, just us ... remembering.

Today we call all of them to mind in one single act of true remembrance. To them all today goes out our debt of gratitude. And for them our prayers ascend to God the Father, that he may grant their souls eternal rest, that after the hardships they endured for the cause of justice they may be welcomed into the joy of his kingdom.

The Bishop to the Armed Forces sent out a letter last month asking us to highlight the importance of those still serving and those who have served in our dangerous world. Today there are 172,000 serving in regular and reserve forces and 1.9 million veterans in the UK.

A prayer for those deployed on active service

*Almighty God,
stretch forth your mighty arm
to strengthen and protect our armed forces;
grant that meeting danger with courage and all occasions with discipline and loyalty,
they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace;
to the honour of your holy name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

With my best wishes and prayers

OCTOBER 2024

As Autumn gathers, our members are packing in activities before the shorter days are upon us. We have been enjoying convivial lunches and almost half our members visited Hammerwood Park in Sussex where we were treated to a fascinating tour of the house (designed by La Trobe) by the owners, David and Anne-Noelle Pinnegar. As well as marvelling at the structural improvements being undertaken, we were treated to music on the many historical instruments contained in the different rooms of the house.

Lunch at The Bell

David explains to our members how the house was constructed on classical lines.

Many keyboards and other instruments such as harps predominate within the building.

Our fingers have been busy creating knitted and crocheted flowers to contribute to the coming Surrey Federation display to highlight the need to stop violence against women, outside headquarters in Guildford.

Our speaker at October's meeting was Neil Sadler, who spoke to us about his experiences working as a policeman at Gatwick Airport. A lively raconteur, Neil took us through the history of the airport site (it was originally a race horse track!) which is the second busiest single runway airport in the world. As well as sharing funny anecdotes, he made us understand some of the challenges faced by airport and plane cabin crew. Rowdy and drunken behaviour are common challenges for staff and the darker side of policing can include deceased stowaways and terrorist threats.

Our next meeting will be our AGM on Tuesday 5th November.

Does anyone know about the Lloyd Family, any stories about them personally? How did they take part in village life, or maybe prop up the bar in the Bell?

I would like to write something about the family that played such a big part in Outwood's history.

The Outwood History Group meets on the second Tuesday of each month.

NATURE WATCH

Over the last month we've had a wide variation, or should I say unpredictability, in our weather, swinging from a couple of days of glorious sunshine and blue skies interspersed with days that start and finish with rain and dark grey clouds usually accompanied by strong winds, being the leftovers of yet another Caribbean hurricane. Temperatures have ranged from a near all-time record temperature for the day of the month of close to 80°, followed a few days later by an overnight ground frost. Somehow half-hardy garden plants like dahlias have somehow got away with things and have continued flowering; similarly, one or two garden roses have produced a smattering of blooms and a late season bouquet for the house.

Moles have continued excavating for worms and for the first time in three years have ventured out from the edges of the flower beds onto our lawns. Out in the countryside autumn leaf colouring continues to build up slowly with the rich golden yellow of field maple, the intense orange red of the spindle tree (Euonymus alatus) and the bronze, yellow and red blend of the turkey oak, like the one on the boundary of Gayhouse Farm. The number of grey squirrels this year seems to be more numerous than in recent years somewhat confirmed by the number of their dead bodies on the local lanes. They have been very active over the last six weeks building up their winter reserves and this includes burying acorns in garden pots.

The National Trust contractors have started the autumn/winter felling schedule of yet more victims of ash die-back, leaving the timber for wildlife, food for fungi and clearings in the woodland, which will be quickly exploited by the dormant seeds of more ash, hornbeam and woodland flowers like bluebells. Ash trees are often looked upon as a weed because its bounteous seed production plus very rapid growth ensures they outcompete many other plants. But its hard timber has a wide range of applications such as furniture manufacturing, shock absorbent handles for tools such as hammers and axes, flooring and boatbuilding and, due to its strength and flexibility, sports equipment such as tennis rackets and hockey sticks. It also makes the best firewood as the old rhyme goes "Ash green or ash brown is fit for a king with a golden crown". Ash has been associated with folklore over the centuries and the Druids included it as one of their guardian trees. Extracts of ash were used for its medicinal benefits such as feeding a teaspoon of sap to newborn babies or as a treatment for earache; ash bark was used to treat fevers and leaves to ease the effects of gout. It is interesting to note that ash branches contain quinine.

Autumn provides a good opportunity to spot fungi, that is the fruiting body above ground, whilst underground or in rotting tree trunks their vegetative structure or root system, mycelia comprised of hyphae continue, unseen, in their job of breaking down life's waste. I've seen a number of fungi on trees such as the colourful Turkey Tail as well as Honey Fungus but many fewer on open ground such as the white heads of Lawyers Wig and the Shaggy Ink Cap, which literally dies off to leave a black puddle. Other reports this month have included one from Jane Ingham who saw a buzzard being chased off by a crow but aided by a woodpigeon and another from James Skelton who didn't see but heard the rough bark of a rutting male fallow deer.

Activities for the Over 50's in Smallfield

I wonder how many folk remember Tandridge Parish Council trying to arrange Table Tennis and Short Mat Bowls for the over 50's in Smallfield about 35 years ago ? They used to come to the Church Hall with either a Table Tennis Table or a mat for Short Mat Bowls.

The Table Tennis carried on in the hall for many years, until we moved to the Centenary Hall where we now meet still on Thursday afternoons 1.30pm to 3.30pm. We play mostly doubles with the occasional game of singles. Due to the fact that we're 'old' we play to the rules we've always played to, so we go up to 21! [You've got more chance to 'catch up' and/or win].

The Church Hall wasn't really suitable for Short Mat Bowls, so it sat on the 'back burner' of a few folks minds until such time that the Centenary Hall was built.

Around 1995 the Smallfield Short Mat Bowls Club was formed and ran very well for many years.

Now like other organizations we are struggling for members. We have three mats, so can easily have up to 24 people playing at a time. Currently we usually have only one mat out, it's so sad watching what was a thriving club dying. We do have spare woods, so all you need to do is come along [with a pair of flat soled shoes]

We'd even let you in if you are younger than 50! We still meet as we always have on Wednesday mornings, play starts at 10am but we have to get the mats out first and as always many hands make light work.

Both clubs would make you very welcome as they always have.

OUTWOOD PARISH COUNCIL

THE PARISH COUNCIL IS CHANGING ITS MEETING DATE AND VENUE

It will now meet in the LLOYD HALL, BRICKFIELD LANE AT 7.30PM ON THE FIRST TUESDAY OF EACH MONTH.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday 5th November 2024. There will then be a break for a month with the following meeting being held on Tuesday 7th January 2025. Can you believe we are looking at 2025 already!!!?

THE PARISH COUNCIL HAS IN PLACE AN EMERGENCY & RESILIENCE PLAN.

This is following best practice, and it is recommended that Councils adopt this. It sets out all kinds of emergencies that could befall a community and the best way of dealing with them to ensure that the community is safe. The Council has also produced a leaflet called 'In Case of Emergency' which gives residents telephone numbers and other vital information at a glance. This will be distributed shortly. This is not anything to worry about. The Council is trying to ensure that such information is readily available in one place. Keep it safe. It's a bit like insurance, useful when you need it.

DO YOU WANT TO REPORT WHAT YOU CONSIDER A PLANNING INFRINGEMENT?

Please 'Report a Breach' at <https://www.tandridge.gov.uk/Planning-and-building/Planning-applications-and-enforcement/What-if-someone-does-not-follow-the-planning-rules>

Only by doing this is the Planning Authority aware of any breaches. The Parish Council has no bigger voice than individual residents

Many pensioners are due to lose their Winter Fuel Payments this year as part of a new Government policy. I voted against the Government's plans to scrap the Winter Fuel Payment. Over 17,000 pensioners across East Surrey are set to lose up to £300 if the Government's plans go ahead. Although this is being put forward as a cost saving measure, it is not likely to raise any money and I don't think enough has been done to ensure pensioners in fuel poverty can make it through the winter. The Conservatives will continue to campaign against this damaging policy.

As we approach winter, you might have seen me and my staff out and about in East Surrey delivering posters to local services and pinning them up on parish council notice boards. That is because I have restarted my campaign to get the word out on how to apply for pension credit. Many pensioners are not aware that if you are in receipt of Pension Credit, you will also receive Winter Fuel Support, a free TV licence, a Warm Home Discount, and much more.

Please check your eligibility or ask a friend or family member to help you check whether you can access this critical support. To apply for Pension Credit, all you need is your National Insurance number, your Bank details, and information about your savings. To check if you are eligible please call 0800 991234, or apply online www.gov.uk/pension-credit.

One of the highlights of the month was attending the opening of the new pool at St Mary's School in Oxted. The students braved the rain and put on one of the best relay races I've seen. Seeing them swim in soggy sombreros is certainly something I won't forget. Cllr Cameron McIntosh and I weren't as brave as the children and hid under the provided cover. In our defence, the pool was heated, but the rain was not. I want to thank Cllr McIntosh, the wonderful team at St Mary's, and everyone involved in the project for all their hard work to deliver this pool.

I also wanted to thank Inspector Lindsey Whatley, the Borough Commander for East Surrey, for taking the time to meet with me recently to discuss residents' concerns including worries about anti-social behaviour, traffic control measures, and traveller sites.

Whilst being updated on the relocation of the police headquarters, I told the inspector that keeping the front desk service at Caterham was very important to people in the town.

After the shoplifting roundtable a few months ago, I was pleased to hear the parish council's work to install CCTV cameras in Oxted was having such a positive impact. I'm also grateful to the officers who have done so much to tackle multiple criminal gangs who were shoplifting on our high streets. There is still more to do, but our fantastic police officers are making good progress.

I've also been continuing my campaign against the Government's tax on independent schools, which will affect 1 in 4 children in Surrey. I spoke in Parliament to raise three major concerns about the Government's plans to do so. First this will hit tens of thousands of children with SEND, second it will also hurt all children in the state sector who will face larger class sizes and lastly it won't raise any money. This is a purely ideological decision which has been rushed out ahead of any impact assessment of how it will affect children.

This is about children's outcomes first and foremost. The Government is yet to respond to the letter of Surrey Conservative MPs asking them to rethink this tax.

You can watch my speech on my Facebook page.

COFFEE MORNING

We hold a Coffee Morning at Lloyd Hall every Wednesday from 11.00 to 12 noon

Everybody is very welcome to come along and make some new friends whilst enjoying real coffee and homemade cake

- only £3.50 coffee / £3.00 tea

Price includes cakes, savory bakes and refills.

COFFEE MORNING NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

Could you spare 2 hours roughly every other month? Our regular Wednesday Coffee Mornings need a few more volunteers. Alternatively, if you have a friend that you “just don’t see often enough”, it’s a great way to spend a couple hours catching up while giving back to the community.

We have several regulars who really count on Wednesday Morning Coffee as a chance to get out once a week.

It is a great way to invest in our community and get to know some of your neighbours.

Please contact Michelann Pollard at ukmikie@hotmail.co.uk to find out more.
